

- FAST FACTS -

WHAT IS THE SECOND HARVEST FOOD BANK?

It is the largest nonprofit food distribution organization in NW PA. Second Harvest solicits, inventories and distributes donated products to 254 member agencies that directly serve people facing hard times. These people include unemployed and underemployed workers, those who are elderly or disabled and families caught in crisis situations. During 2008, Second Harvest distributed 7 million pounds of food.

HOW DOES THE FOOD GET TO THE PEOPLE WHO NEED IT?

Second Harvest distributes food to member agencies, most of which provide food directly to needy clients through various types of programs. The illustration below helps explain the process:

How can YOU help?

Donate Money

For every $1 donation, Second Harvest can obtain $17 worth of food.

Donate Time

Hours are available Monday through Saturday. Check our Web site for more information.
www.eriefoodbank.org

Donate Food

Second Harvest accepts non-perishable food donations. Drop off your food today.